PENIPT

(DIPHALANE): OCTOBER 10 – NOVEMBER 8, 2020

MAATA is the Divinity of cosmic order and balance. She is essential for the stability of life. She represents truth, justice and moral fortitude. Qualities of Maata are essential for leadership, philosophy and law. Maata held an important role in the afterlife. She not only keeps order among the living, but serves as the bridge to paradise in the afterlife. Once the dead reach the judgment halls of Ra and Wsr, Maata weighs the heart of each person against the weight of her ostrich feather. If the heart weighs equal to or less than the feather, they are considered just and worthy of continuing into the Duat, or everlasting afterlife. Her many different names are: Eye of Ra, Mistress of the Underworld, Queen of the Earth, Lady of Heaven, Lady of the Gods and Goddesses. Sacred animals for those born in this month include: cow, catfish, cobra, ram, Sacred Bull and vulture. To one it is forbidden to consume or kill these animals.

NWT

(PHATWE): SEPTEMBER 5 – SEPTEMBER 10, 2021

1	2	3	4	5	6
					BIRTHDAY OF WSR Sun 9/5	BIRTHDAY OF HERU THE GREAT Mon 9/6	BIRTHDAY OF SETH Tue 9/7	BIRTHDAY OF AISHAT Wed 9/8	BIRTHDAY OF NEPHTYS Thu 9/9	EARTH RENEWAL DAY Fri 9/10

NWT, the Sky Goddess, is the mother of Wsr, Aishat, Seth, Haru the Great and Nebt Hati.
She keeps the forces of chaos from breaking through the sky and destroying the world.
Nwt is represented as the personification of the night sky, a woman carrying a calabash of water on Her head, or in the form of a cow. She is the granddaughter of Ra and the wife of Geb. Originally the year consisted of twelve months of thirty days. Nwt, the Goddess of the sky, and Geb, the God of the Earth, were caught in the act of procreation by the God Ra. Ra became angry at the Goddess' rush to create, and He punished Nwt by forbidding Her to bear children all 360 days of the year.
Nwt was devastated and decided to appeal to the Ennead of the Gods concerning her plight. The Ennead felt sorry for Nut and decided to add extra days to the year so that She could bear children. Thus, the month of Nwt came into being and Nwt was able to bear her five children; Wsr, Haru the Great, Seth, Aishat and Nebt Hati. An additional day is added every four calendar cycles for the renewal of the Divine pact. This day is referred to as World Renewal Day.
